

Sri Sathya Sai Baba Centre of Calgary

Presents

“Glimpses of Gita”

A GUIDE TO PRACTICAL LIVING...

Was this great epic poem really recited by Lord Krishna in its entirety on the battlefield of Kurukshetra while thousands of warriors with elephants and horses ready and eager for battle waiting impatiently?

What really happened?

An energetic and awakening talk by Jagadeesan Jegasothy

On the evening of Wednesday
15th Mar 2017 at 6:00 PM

Brother Jagadeesan hails from Malaysia. Even while holding many international portfolios, he never lost his focus on social and spiritual work bestowed upon him by Bhagavan. He is actively involved in service for the needy, inter-faith activities and the promotion of Human Values in Society. He is the recipient of many honours/awards.

- Dato' (1996), (equivalent to Sir in UK) which was awarded by the Sultan of a Malaysian State
- Malaysian Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry introduced a award called “Dato Jegathesan Award for Social Service” for companies
- Four Nations nominated Brother Jaga for Nobel Prize in 2008
- Senior Consultant and Investment Advisor for the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), UNIDO & MIGA of World Bank

Venue:

Hindu Society of Calgary 2225 24 Ave NE,
Calgary, AB T2E 8M2

Followed by Prashad (Dinner)